Your business is ready to evolve.

You are tired of using phrases like, “I’ll figure it out one day.”

So let’s do it.

Let’s create a clear, actionable & profitable strategy, together.

[I’M IN!]

I'm Tasseey...

... and I totally get the place you're at.

After leaving a successful 25-year corporate technology career, 11 years of them spent innovating processes and systems at NASDAQ, I decided to use my skills and expertise to start my own business.

I quickly learned running your own business is no easy task – and involves a lot of moving parts.

After helping my clients build their own small business for the last 12 years, as well as my own, I've learned that to build, grow or lead a wildly successful business having a clear, actionable message & plan will be the difference between surviving and thriving in business.

Whether you're earning 6+ figures or struggling to ramp up to build a powerhouse business or team ...I know you're ready for the next level and want to make it happen.

Let's evolve your business, together.
